SENATE PROPOSED 2021-23 BIENNIAL CAPITAL BUDGET

Debt Limit, Bond Capacity and Total Appropriations

Debt Limit

Washington State has a constitutional debt limit. The State Treasurer may not issue any bonds that would cause the debt service (principle and interest payments) on any new or existing bonds to exceed this limit. Under a constitutional amendment approved by the voters in 2012, the debt limit is currently 8.25 percent of the average of the prior six years' general state revenues, defined as all unrestricted state revenues. This limit is reduced to 8 percent on July 1, 2034.

Bond Capacity

A model administered by the State Treasurer's Office is used to calculate the available bond capacity for the current budgeting period and for future borrowing. The model calculates the actual debt service on outstanding bonds and estimates future debt service based on certain assumptions, including revenue growth, interest rates, rate of repayments, rate of bond issuance, growth of future capital budgets, and other factors. The Treasurer's Office model assumes a long-term (beyond 2031) interest rate of 5 percent and future bond budget growth from one biennia to the next of 8 percent. The Senate proposed budget model assumes a long-term interest rate of 3.81 percent, which is the Bond Buyer's Index rate as provided by the Economic and Revenue Forecast Council, and bond budget growth between 2021-23 and 2023-25 of 2 percent.

For the 2021-23 biennium, projected bond capacity is $3.968 billion. The bond capacity was $3.2 billion in the 2019-21 biennium. Proposed Substitute Senate Bill (PSSB) 5083 makes appropriations of $3.928 billion in bond proceeds for the 2021-23 biennium and the 2019 supplemental budget of the 2019-21 biennium; this amount requires the passage of a new bond authorization bill, PSSB 5084. In addition, PSSB 5083 authorizes alternative financing for seven projects including four community and technical college projects, a library-archives building for the Secretary of State and a nursing facility replacement at the Fircrest School residential habilitation center. PSSB 5083 makes total appropriations in the 2021-23 biennium of $6.234 billion. $50.8 million in bond capacity remains for a 2022 supplemental capital budget.
